Local Financial Advisor to Serve on Paladin Registry's Advisory Board

Develop and Implement the Registry's Vision*

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK (May 24, 2005) – Brian Puckett, principal of Brian Puckett Retirement Advisors, LLC, has accepted an invitation from Paladin Registry founder Jack Waymire to join the fledgling organization's Advisory Board. Puckett was initially admitted to the Registry in November, 2004, after meeting its stringent experience, education and ethics requirements.

The Paladin Registry is a new web-based service that helps investors find, evaluate, and select financial advisors. A screening process and high standards ensure that only qualified, tenured advisors are included. From among the Registry membership, Waymire has assembled a Board of 16 high quality professionals who are geographically dispersed around the country. Initially, the Board's focus will be the organization's business model, the important issues related to it and the way it impacts all professionals who provide wealth management services. "Since the Paladin Registry is a new entity," says Waymire, "I was especially careful to select board members whose wisdom could help us frame and develop critical strategic initiatives. Brian Puckett stood out as someone who clearly fit the criteria."
